The subscriber who has paid for his paper does not have to read what we have to say to those who haven't paid, or, if he does read, knows we do not mean him, so he can sit back and laugh most heartily at the digs we are giving his neighbor who is behind, and "most ingenerally" he knows who we are hitting at, too.

There will be a Christmas Tree at Griffin Church on Monday after Christmas Day. This is to be a good "old-fashioned" Christmas Tree after the good old St. Nicholas order and the committee asks you to put a present on it for your friend; he will be there to see you get yours. Everybody from everywhere will be there, so hand in your presents to either of the following members of the committee on arrangements: S. H. Brown, W. E. Hendricks, S. L. We are just in receipt of a postal card from T. E. Powell, in which he says, "Please send my paper to Catawba, S. C." Now there is nothing remarkable about a person changing his paper. Not at all. The point we want to make is this: Mr. Powell failed to tell us where he is going, and his paper, which will come as to look through some of our papers, and find out where he is going, and then we can send him his paper. This is a good thing to do, and we will do it for you, too. If you want to change your paper, let us know, and we will do it for you, too.
